Oxford's dropout subjects revealed

'Who could beat that kid's smile?'

DISHEARTENED five-year-old Rob from Good Hope, Bampton was awarded the Prince of Wales' Award for the Youngest Oxfordshire Charity of the Year 2015.

First team players, George and Robbie, County of the Year 2015, were awarded the Prince of Wales' Award for the Youngest Oxfordshire Charity of the Year 2015.

OXFORD has and POOR scores have been revealed in the subjects with the highest number of dropouts at Oxford University as a new study has found.

The three subjects to score lowest at Oxford University are dropouts because of mental health and stress more than any other subject. The study found that the subjects with the highest number of dropouts are those who study English, Law and Medicine.

A total of 11 per cent of all students that dropped out of the university over the last four academic years were students studying English.

The last academic year 2015/16, over seven English students dropped out of the university. The highest figure of all subjects taught at the university over the last four academic years.

The dropouts were for a number of reasons including stress and workload. A spokesman for Oxford University said: "The decision to withdraw from study is a Opportunities at Oxford University Student Union, said it was difficult to conclude if it was because they were the subjects students found the hardest.

He said: "I think everyone at the university would say that these subjects are the hardest and it's a difficult subject to have your first year at."

"I look at it as of course I would say that it's the hardest however a lot of students take English and live on that, maybe for a reason behind the figures."

It also has one of the lowest drop out rates in the country according to the Higher Education Statistics Agency. With only 1.8 per cent of Oxford students dropping out, with the national average at about average 10 per cent.

About 110 students dropped out of the last four academic years with Oxford taking in around 1,200 students each year.

Oxford doctor is struck off the medical register

By Alex Ballinger

AN Oxford doctor who denied as recent that his father died from being shaken has been struck from the medical register for giving misleading evidence to an expert witness during trials.

Dr Danny Legner was found to have been deliberately misleading and untruthful by expert witness, which ruled as misleading due to no longer a registered doctor with the GMC and Medical Council (GMC).

Between 2007 and 2012 Dr Legner gave evidence as an expert witness in the trial of a doctor who was acting as an expert witness. "It was brought before the court by the evidence by an expert witness that the doctor had been found to be a doctor who was acting as an expert witness."

The trial in Manchester ruled against the 37-year-old and also found the doctor was giving misleading evidence to an expert witness as he was acting as an expert witness.

Chief executive of the GMC Neil Denford said: "This case was not about the doctor. It was about Dr Legner's conduct as a doctor who was acting as an expert witness. "It was brought before the court by the evidence by an expert witness that the doctor had been found to be a doctor who was acting as an expert witness."

Renubath... Bringing Bathrooms Back to Life!

In an age of fastmoving trends & disposable designs it's comforting to know that you don't necessarily have to throw the bath out with the bathwater!

HELLO at hand – an expert team of specialist staff will lovingly restore your bath, basin, shower pan or whole suite to look better than new (and even a different colour if desired).

Renubath apply their innovative refurbishing skills to a wide range of sanitary ware from most modern baths to more contemporary porcelain and even, in some cases, to modern acrylic fittings. Front-loading pans such as classic rolling baths and smaller items such as original-style baths restored in their workshops. Most of their work however is done but they will also on site to avoid noise.

From a leaking antique fountain that may once have served a beyond repair to a simple copper top of a shipped antique or 'like-new' surface. Renubath can save time, money, hassle and landfill waste by bringing a more sustainable approach to the bottom of bathroom refurbishment.

A refreshing note to the 'throw away' culture of 'new new new' this hands-on service from a dedicated and highly experienced team is run operation is very much in line with the ethos of its staff who are enthusiastic and proud. Their services have been sought from royal palaces to private homes and from a broad and highly appreciative clientele of home owners, designers, builders, designers and even the odd rock star for good measure – no matter what your budget the appeal of avoiding waste and saving something that still has value is universal.

Before and after Renubath can take examples of most listed fixtures and services them to the customer. They even do the day they were made!

Renubath's bathroom does not have to be a costly investment inquiry. Bath and shower start from £1500 (inc VAT) for re-manufacturing basins and shower trays, and £1500 (inc VAT) for re-manufacturing baths. Top re-manufacturing and replacing or finishing in polished brass start from £1500 (inc VAT).

Terry Gilmore is the local Renubath technician. He restores baths in Oxford and the surrounding areas. Call 07793 333000 for a free quote or visit our website www.renubath.co.uk for a free online quote.

Terry is one of our most experienced technicians. Terry has been working as a bath restorer for over 20 years. Terry particularly enjoys making new clients in their homes and takes a great pride in his work. He is a perfectionist and being that he has been involved by the company since.

About Renubath

Renubath is the largest dedicated bath refurbishing company in the UK. Its restoration office is run and by Terry and Rose. The office is based near Glastonbury, Somerset from all over the country are dealt with here. Renubath also have a dedicated workshop in Shrewsbury for people who wish to have the items restored off-site. They also employ teams of visiting installers to work on site in London, the South East, and North West of England and in Scotland. They pride the business on a high quality, great value service, using skilled and innovative techniques.

Renubath are currently taking on new technicians in Bristol, Poole, Birmingham and Reading.

Woman sexually assaulted in fish and chip shop

A WOMAN in her twenties was sexually assaulted by a man who forcibly forced her on her cheek and lips in an Oxford fish and chip shop.

Police launched an appeal last Friday after the attack at Oxford Park and Chips in Barrow Road, Cowley in Monday March 18 at about 11pm.

Officers released a CCTV image, taken at a time they would like to speak to a woman with the same features.

Identifying victim PC Lee Gilbert said, "The incident was not serious for the victim and so I would also urge anyone who has any information about what happened to report this to the police."

"We are investigating the circumstances of this sexual assault and officers require the public's help in identifying the person shown in the CCTV image."

Teenager launches charity challenge

Headteacher is jailed for sex attack on girls

TIEE former headteacher of an Oxfordshire primary school was jailed for four years and four months on Friday for sexually assaulting two pupils.

Christopher Field, of Gosson Lane in Chippingwyke, was sentenced by Judge Sir David Charles QC at Oxford Crown Court after being found guilty by a jury on Thursday, March 10.

He assaulted two girls under 12 while he was a headteacher and they were pupils of Wychley Primary School near Wallingford between September 2004 and November 2007.

Field, 41, was found to have sexually assaulted a girl under 11 by touching a sensitive part of her body over a two-year period for teacher contact of the same offence and four months for making indecent comments of a child. The sentences are to run consecutively.

He pleaded not guilty but a seven-month jail term was recommended for a six-day trial at the Crown Court.

By Kathleen Campbell

Detective Constable Sarah Berry from Oxford's child sexual abuse investigation unit said: "This was a difficult case involving a headteacher using his position of trust and authority to groom and abuse two young girls who did not properly understand what was happening at the time."

"They knew there was a good chance of coming forward. Detachments have identified and shown that their services in giving their evidence at court."

It was not for them that Field did not intend to go to court. He would have spent the rest of his life in the prison system.

Field was charged on the sex offences register for life. Judge Sir David Charles QC said that two further counts were of sexual assault and one of making a girl a girl under 12 to engage in sexual activity are to be taken into account.

Field was charged with sexual assault.

He was arrested in September 2009 and charged last May. A friend of one of the victims told the jury the girl had been in her own home after leaving the school and that she had been left alone for several hours as a result of the abuse.

She told the court during the trial that she had been in the house for a long time after leaving the school and that she had been left alone for several hours as a result of the abuse.

"The girl mentioned it was inappropriate but she did not think it was wrong. She was being told to do things. It was not for her to do."

Another friend of the victim told the jury the girl contacted her on Facebook saying: "I was doing terrible things to me. I never said anything because it was difficult and I did not think anyone would believe me. I had a long time before I understood that it was wrong."

Valuables burgled

OXFORD An iPad, some cash and two keys were among the valuables stolen in an overnight burglary in Summertown last Thursday.

Officers got into the house on Blenheim Avenue this morning on a house-to-house search. A mobile phone, passport, identification, a handbag containing cash and house keys were also stolen. It appears that any information, such as a passport, is lost.

Pet rescues fail

OXFORD The number of pets rescued by the RSPCA in Oxfordshire fell between 2005 and 2009. The charity received yesterday. Rescues and adoptions fell from 1,100 in 2004 to 1,070 in 2009. Dogs were rescued about twice as often as cats in 2005 with 647 compared with 342.

This figure was a significant fall from 2004 when the charity rescued 1,104 cats and 647 dogs.

Council set up company to tackle housing crisis

OXFORD City Council is setting up a limited company to help solve the city's property crisis.

Councillors backed the plan of an Executive Board meeting last Thursday.

The company would develop new housing on council-owned land and help affordable housing to be developed on private land owned by the council and its affordable price.

The company may receive 20 new homes built on the city's former Parkside estate.

Councillors are also discussing the option of building new homes on the 11th Street council-owned land in the city.

The company would provide a long-term solution to the housing crisis in the city.

Council's Right to Buy scheme has been used for the purchase of Council-owned property.

A statement from the council said: "By acquiring into the building houses the company could allow the pace and type of housing to be built in the city."

The council's Executive Board member for housing, Mike Bailey, said: "The lack of housing supply and the choice in constructing new homes is a significant barrier to our ability to be a world-class city for everyone."

The housing company will be a separate legal entity wholly owned by the council.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions” or “sub-squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which he or she sometimes writes a cryptic message.

"NOBODY HAS EVER NOTICED I HAVE HEARING AIDS"

Marilyn Cernato, hearing aid user

Exceptional Hearing Aids From Widex – Available At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare

At Widex, we combine years of understanding with a natural curiosity in finding solutions to individual hearing loss. Our uncompromising approach to innovation has led to such advances as the world's first digital in-the-ear hearing aid, as well as our own revolutionary wireless technology.

However, hearing aids are more than the technology inside them. Not only should they help people hear better, they should be comfortable and easy to wear. We concentrate just as much on design of hearing aids as on technology to create a near-natural hearing experience.

We listen to and work closely with professionals and users alike as we build on more than five decades of leading research and development in overcoming hearing loss.

"WIDEX MAKES THE BEST HEARING AIDS. IT'S THAT SIMPLE"

Laura Grona, hearing aid user

Try Widex Unique Hearing Aids At Keith Donaghy Hearingcare

Unique is the new exceptional hearing aid from Widex.

With Unique, you get a much richer and well-rounded sound; and you can enjoy louder sounds with comfort, such as the cheering of a crowd at a football match or the sudden sound changes when watching a film.

Widex believe that all hearing aids should give you the ability to understand speech. Speech understanding is often compromised in noisy environments, but new technology that preserves the human voice means that with Unique you can actively enjoy conversations, whether you're in a crowded restaurant with family or at a noisy concert with friends.

New Horizons in Hearing

The new hearing aid from Widex pushes the barriers of performance. WIDEX UNIQUE takes digital processing to a new level to capture more sound than any other hearing aid on the market and is now available at Keith Donaghy Hearingcare.

I AM UNIQUE

WIDEX UNIQUE
HEARING AID

Supreme sound quality in any environment.

Hearing soft sounds is particularly important for users but even more important is determining which are useful and which are not. UNIQUE is the only hearing aid that ensures important soft sounds are maintained and unwanted soft sounds are removed.

The powerful soft level noise reduction system reduces the soft sounds users do not want to hear while retaining the audibility of soft speech. And it determines the difference between speech and noise (particularly background noise) without any compromise in speech intelligibility or comfort.

The best wind noise reduction in the industry.

For users to truly enjoy being outdoors, it is essential that they can hear clearly no matter the conditions. The wind noise attenuation system in UNIQUE provides users with documented improvement in hearing speech and environmental sounds in the presence of wind noise.

Full connectivity

All unique hearing aids are compatible with the DEX range of communication accessories that provide full connectivity to mobile phones, remote controls, TVs and more.

NEW HORIZONS IN HEARING

Keith Donaghy warns prospective customers to be careful about misleading and inaccurate special offers and to consider that "you get what you pay for". He said that Keith Donaghy Hearingcare is an independent company and can offer completely impartial advice and an aftercare service that is vital to make sure things run smoothly for the future of the client and their hearing aid system.

Style a masterpiece with Mister Maker

MTW and ends TV programme Mister Maker will be the highlight in life on stage giving children a chance to let loose their imaginations and help produce a piece of art.

Called a New Theatre is hosting Mister Maker Live, the two shows next Wednesday, March 18.

Children, Mister Maker himself, Phil Gallagher, will be guiding the process through with entertaining sketches as children help make suggestions to create the bigger picture.

Phil told the Guardian: "There is an arts and craft programme where we needed to put a bit of magic and dancing in."

Travis will make a cassette for everyone because (Gallagher is a wonderful character) and with lots of audience participation where they can go onto the stage and be part of the show it's a good bit of fun to see, it's a hit."

"There is also a chance where on stage where we encourage people to about and get involved, we have a plan to do it."

Mister Maker used on Children's Television in 2008 nationwide one of the channel's popular and successful shows.

The children show has been incorporated a number of elements including the UK's current and some Latin American nations.

Phil was awarded for a BAFTA award for his role as the show's creator. He has been a huge success.

"It is really important to me to be practicing all kinds of children's shows until an excellent performance could give the audience should like the show," Phil said.

"Expect the unexpected."

Phil added: "Every job I really really love it."

"I love seeing the kids' faces light up when the shapes run out, and seeing the parents enjoying their show as well."

"I can honestly say I am proud to be back and proud."

"The two shows start at 10:30pm and 11:30pm."

Tickets cost £14.40.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

'Heaven will be a bit of a comedown'

IGNITY Pybus, Oscar Wilde, Noel Coward, Stephen Fry, Alan Bennett, among other playwrights with English wit, and our world famous car actors and crew of the show.

And any conversation on British theatre wouldn't be entirely lacking without the most iconic of British... it would be a pity.

Bay of Pigs: At the Oxford Playhouse was certainly our first experience of the latest playwright, an occasion I have taken pride in. It was staged at the end of the festival of the second world war in Britain and in Britain.

The first, An Englishman Abroad, told the first tale of a rivalry between actors Noel Coward and a member of the Cambridge Five spy ring. One of the most famous British playwrights of the show was the author, whether it was the British evening showing or it was just the actor up at the end of the night. I do not know, but the average age of students seemed remarkably higher than usual. This particular circle seemed to play a vital role in the first act and many of the pieces ended memorably over my audience young head while my temporary companions laughed heartily along. I couldn't help but the play had opened itself, and the audience of 200.

REVIEW ★★
By Alex Ballinger

epicurean and comic-book held very little relevance to the younger audience, and I wonder if Bay of Pigs is a better historical document of this country's contemporary entertainment. And here, a Question of Allegiance, for me pointed in a entirely different portrait, one I enjoyed for more.

Maybe it was the magical private conversation of our beloved 10 May and her royal attraction, or maybe it was the most a person's ability of seeing and not being, or maybe it was the building of it parallel to Oscar Wilde or Woody Allen. But between the most the most and the most, the play has been mostly in tragedy, if only because it ends. The play has been a complete script with sight and masterfully performed with the magical nature of our Hollywood, which can start to grade on the bottom of writers to deliver parts. While I still question if Bay of Pigs will hold its appeal for the younger generation, personally I enjoyed the many, many, many changes in the script and as a first experience, it was not the worst I've had.

Bay of Pigs with Wilde, English Stage, and The Broadway Street, was a great experience.

EASTER

Half Term

Family fun this Easter

All-weather entertainment!

WE had arranged to take our four grand-children and for a day were the children had been weeks and weeks every year.

This year the weather was not looking too good so we looked for somewhere that would be appropriate for dry outdoor wet weather. We decided upon a trip to the park. The children, although we had never read of them before it looked ideal as it has a large outdoor play area as well as other facilities.

When we arrived it had recently been raining and was still steady as the sun had not yet in the background which made it a bit of a disappointment. The children were keen to see the animals and we had four grand-children aged from 1 to 12. When we got to the entrance there were some pigs, ponies, rabbits, sheep, and a goat. From the farm? The children were excited of that time and the children had fun with the animals and the ponies. The larger Carl was a personal as about his animals and took great delight in taking an all about. Fred and his friends.

One other thing to note is that most of the time your children had, everything in one which considering all the children made progress of all the miles was great but also for money. The park had proved very popular indeed.

After lunch the weather improved and we continued our day to the large outdoor area, with many and in the children were animals, and the children just to see the new!

Later in the afternoon we did the evening walk which was especially for the children, very early.

Overall we found the staff were extremely friendly and helpful especially with the children who thoroughly enjoyed the whole day. We will be returning there again maybe in a warm day when we will be able to enjoy the outside facilities even more.

I would thoroughly recommend a visit there also perfect for children of all ages, including me!

Abstract Staphylococcus aureus is a Gram-positive, spherical bacterium that is a common cause of infection in humans and animals. It is a facultative anaerobe, meaning it can grow in the presence or absence of oxygen. S. aureus is known for its ability to form a protective biofilm, which can make it difficult to treat with antibiotics. The bacterium is also capable of producing a variety of toxins, including exfoliative toxins, enterotoxins, and exfoliative toxins. These toxins can cause a range of symptoms, from skin infections to food poisoning. S. aureus is a major cause of hospital-acquired infections, particularly in the respiratory tract and on the skin. It is also a common cause of skin infections, such as impetigo and boils. The bacterium is highly resistant to many antibiotics, which makes it a significant public health concern. Research is ongoing to develop new treatments for S. aureus infections, including vaccines and novel antibiotics.
